In your midst, and regarded as one of the shining lights of this city, there is a man who is responsible for my present condition and poverty.

Through his duplicity I have been railroaded to jail, from which I have luckily escaped. At the present time Detective Doyle is on my trail, but I am hidden from him. He will not be able to find me until I have accomplished my purpose. Then it will be too late.

To this man, Fletcher Burton, I issue fair warning, Justice is Blind, but Justice is Just.

He has forbidden his son to marry my daughter. He hasn't played fair with the world or with me.

In FLESH and BLOOD is the kinship of love; I will remain until My purpose is accomplished.
